

THREE WINDOWS TO BE INSTALLED

Will Mark Completion of Old Blandford Church as Beautiful Memorial.

RESOLUTIONS OF THANKS

Veterans Appreciate Handsome Gift From Massachusetts. Other News

Times-Dispatch Bureau, 6 Hollingsworth Street, Telephone 1485, Petersburg, Va., January 5.

The coming spring of probably an earlier date will witness the installation and unveiling of the three remaining Confederate State windows in historic old Blandford Church, and the completion of that church as a beautiful memorial chapel. This noble work, as is known, is due to the fact that the Memorial Association, the late remaining windows to be installed are those of the States of Georgia, Florida and Texas. They are now being finished in New York, where all of the other State memorial windows were made, and the date of their installation and unveiling will be left to the convenience of the manufacturers.

The occasion of the unveiling will be one of impressive ceremonies, and representatives of the three States will probably be present to take part in them.

At the same time it is expected to unveil the handsome monument erected by the Washington Artillery, of New Orleans, in memory of the dead of that famous command resting in a square near the old church.

Resolutions of Thanks. At the regular meeting last night of A. P. Hill Camp of Confederate Veterans resolutions of thanks to Governor Foss and the delegation from Massachusetts, who visited this city on November 13 to unveil a monument on the Crater battlefield, for the magnificent clock presented to the camp, were adopted. The resolutions are of very cordial character, and will be handsomely engrossed and framed and forwarded to the donors.

Big Peanut Receipts. The receipts of peanuts in Petersburg last year, Spanish and Virginians, are estimated to have been between 1,200,000 to 1,500,000 bags, of four bushels per bag. The average price was $1.25 per bushel until the new crop began to come in late in the fall, when there was marked decline in the market prices, gradually falling to 30 cents. The new year opens with good receipts. The peanut crop is one of the most important and valuable in southern Virginia.

Officers Installed. At the meeting last night of Petersburg Lodge, No. 78, I. O. O. F., the newly elected officers were installed as follows: Noble Grand, James C. Hoy; Vice-Grand, W. H. Weaver; Recording Secretary, James A. Alfriend; Financial Secretary, E. L. Alley; Treasurer, W. H. Wilcox; Chaplain, E. J. Hudgins; S. P. Grand, E. A. Price. The installation ceremonies were conducted by District Deputy Grand Master James A. Alfriend. After the meeting the members sat down to supper at the Strand.

Marriage in Sussex. Last evening in the home of the bride in Sussex county, Miss Frances Elmore Wrenn was married to Marvin Diblett Goodrich, a prominent and popular young citizen of Petersburg. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. W. Edwards, of Waverly, in the presence of a number of invited guests. The bride was given away by her brother, Lawrence B. Wrenn. The bride was handsomely gowned in ivory satin, embroidered in tulle, and carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Elizabeth Everett, of Norfolk, was maid of honor, attired in yellow messaline with an overdress of dove-gray chiffon and pearl trimmings. Her flowers were an arm bouquet of sunset roses.

The dame of honor was Mrs. Lois E. Bryant, sister of the bride, who wore yellow messaline with gold trimmings.

and her flowers were sunset roses. The bridesmaids were Misses Hortense and Ruth Wrenn, who wore white silk marquisette over yellow messaline, with crystal trimmings, and carried maiden-hair ferns tied with yellow tulle. Misses Nancy Wrenn and Margaret Lamb were the flower girls, and Misses Wrenn carried bouquets of the ring and a lily. The best man was James E. Goodrich, of Petersburg, brother of the bridegroom. A reception followed, at which the color scheme of yellow and green was carried out in the decorations. The bridal trip will be West and North.

General News. Mrs. Sarah Jane Emmett, widow of Thomas Emmett, aged fifty-seven years, died last evening in her home on Commerce Street. The remains were today taken to Wilmington, N. C., for burial in the family cemetery near that city.

The Petersburg Grays will be inspected next Friday evening by Colonel George F. Baltzell, Ninth United States Infantry. Because of inadequate accommodations in the small armory, the inspection will be held in the street.

A small fire occurred last night in the colored Baptist Church, on Hyatt Street. The department was called out, but the fire was extinguished without material damage with chemicals. An improvement League is soon to be organized at Prince George Courthouse, and a fine, new public school building is soon to be erected there.

H. B. Rogerson suffered an attack of acute indigestion last night, and was taken to the hospital. A "steplejack" is engaged in painting the tall spire of Tabernacle Presbyterian Church, but the intense cold and high wind compelled him to cease work today.

Mrs. D. E. Hostander, who died suddenly yesterday at Victoria, was formerly and for several years a resident of Petersburg, where she had many friends. The body will be taken to Pennsylvania for burial.

Two Men Hurt. This morning, while at work on the new Rosestock & Co. building, on Sycamore Street, two of the workmen—W. T. Creasy and Robert Wilson—were hurt by a fall. They were standing on a scaffold in the arway, when the plank broke, and they were precipitated to the basement. The fall, fortunately, was only a few feet. Mr. Creasy was injured in his back and was taken to the hospital. Mr. Wilson was only slightly hurt, and went to his home in Chesterfield county.

MURDERED AFTER MAKING THREATS

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Fayetteville, N. C., January 5.—While armed with an axe and endeavoring to force his way through a gate leading to the room of Buck Fann, a hack driver, and a young man named Faircloth, with the avowed intention of killing both inmates, Joe Salmon, also a hack driver, was shot and killed by Fann at the Holmes & Gouvinier Hotel, on a street at about 10 o'clock this morning. When arrested Fann had gone back to bed, with Salmon lying dead on the walk outside.

The tragedy occurred after Salmon had entered Fann's room, raised a row, and back to the door in the dispute with Faircloth, and had been taken away by George Turinton, who, with J. A. Howard, accompanied him and killed him at the killing at police headquarters.

Howard at the coroner's inquest testified that Salmon "didn't appear drunk," though Turinton said he was about half-drunk. Being led from the premises by Turinton, Salmon secured an axe and made his threat about killing the two men within. He began cutting on the solid gates with the axe, when Fann warned him to go away. His warning proved ineffective, Fann fired five shots at the closed gate without effect. The sixth pierced Salmon's brain. The exact cause of the quarrel cannot be learned. Fann, Salmon and all the principal witnesses had shortly returned from a social affair in the lower end of the city but there was no evidence produced to show that the trouble originated there. Fann was given a preliminary trial before Mayor McNeill, and he was bound over to the higher court on the charge of manslaughter, the Mayor ruling that the evidence showed no malice or murderous intent. He was placed under a $500 bond, which he has so far been unable to give. As a result of drinking a mixture from what they thought to be asparagus roots, two negro men, living at Winder, whose names could not be learned here, died yesterday. Feeling unwell, the men went out and dug up the roots. Shortly after drinking the concoction they were both attacked with a violent sickness, accompanied by severe cramps, which caused their deaths.

Cotton Ginned. Memphis, Tenn., January 5.—The National Ginters' Association gives the amount of cotton ginned up to January 14, 1911, as follows: Alabama, 1,432,000; Arkansas, 785,000; Florida, 87,000; Georgia, 2,640,000; Louisiana, 352,000; Mississippi, 1,550,000; North Carolina, 980,000; Oklahoma, 42,000; South Carolina, 1,209,000; Tennessee, 395,000; Texas, 2,395,000; Virginia, 118,000. Total, 14,371,000.

HUFFMAN GIVES BOND OF $25,000

Man Charged With Theft of Registered Package Released From Jail.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Lynchburg, Va., January 5.—George L. Huffman, who has been in jail here for two months, under the charge of stealing a registered package containing $20,000 from the mails, was released upon bail this afternoon by Federal Commissioner Thomas J. O'Brien. The penalty of the bond was $25,000, and the surety was given by relatives and friends of the Huffman family, all of whom reside in Rockingham county, excepting an uncle, who lives in Norfolk.

The sureties and the sum they are liable for under the bond are as follows: W. G. Tamm, George E. Keene, G. W. Taylor, $10,000 each; William Kuntz, $10,000 each; Ludwig Hirsch, $2,000; G. L. Huffman, $2,000; J. H. Painter, $2,000; and E. P. Huffman, of Norfolk, $10,000. The bond will expire March 12, that being the first day of the March term of the Federal court here.

Huffman was released from jail about 2 o'clock, and went to his home in Rockingham county this afternoon with his mother, Mrs. D. A. Huffman, who came here last night with the papers upon which the bond was secured.

Huffman's release is due entirely to the untiring efforts of his mother, who never had the slightest idea of giving up her efforts to secure the bail as long as there was the slightest chance of securing her friends and relatives in his behalf. She declared in the office at the jail this morning that while others had given up in the night to secure the bail, she had no idea of stopping until her efforts were crowned with success. Just how determined she was is evidenced by the fact that she went home this afternoon with her son.

Mrs. Huffman today expressed her confidence in her son and the strong hope that he will be able to prove his innocence when the case comes to trial here in March. She expects to reach Harrisonburg to-morrow morning.

ASHLAND NEWS NOTES

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Ashland, Va., January 5.—John L. Saunders, J. Z. Johnson and Edward Whitton, the newly elected Board of Supervisors, met on night and organized, electing John L. Saunders chairman. Mr. Saunders is the only old member of the board. This position he has held for eight years. The board gave an increase of salary to the Commonwealth's attorney of $50; clerk of the county, $50, and to the sheriff, $150.

Miss E. Jones, of Petersburg, who has been the guest of Miss Caroline J. Midgette, has returned home. Mrs. William Tyler, of Sligo, was the recent guest of Mrs. Hill Carter. Rev. and Mrs. John E. and Mrs. Elliott DeJarnette, and have gone to their home in Washington.

Misses Martha and Mary McCue have returned to Ashland after a visit to their aunt, Mrs. Clyde Barnes. Miss Elizabeth, of Lewiston, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Josie Wright. Miss Frances Spaulding is visiting relatives in Norfolk. At the meeting of the Young Ladies' Literary Club on Thursday afternoon Mrs. Ivey F. Lewis read a delightful paper on "Early English Literature," and Miss Margaret Tucker led the discussion on "Current Events." Fred K. Prosser will return to Blacksburg on Sunday after a visit to his sister, Mrs. B. M. Shepherd. Mrs. R. P. Gibson, of Rocky Mount, N. C., was the guest Wednesday of the Misses Trevillian.

LYNCHBURG TO PROHIBIT SALE OF FIRECRACKERS

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Lynchburg, Va., January 5.—The Common Council last night by a unanimous vote went on record as favoring the prohibition of the sale of firecrackers in the city in the future, and a resolution was adopted instructing the Finance Committee to incorporate in the next tax ordinance a license tax on the sale of firecrackers and fireworks and firearms that will effectively stop the sale of the former.

The matter came up on a resolution offered by Mr. Peter Smith of the Second Ward, and it was adopted without division.

Will Inspect Federal Building. Postmaster Edgar Allan, Jr., and Collector of Customs Frank Read, of New York News, left last night for Roanoke for the purpose of inspecting the new Federal Building there.

Dr. Blue's Promotion. Washington, January 5.—President Taft will send to the Senate Monday the nomination of Dr. Rupert Blue, of South Carolina, as surgeon-general of the Public Health and Marine Corps Hospital Service, succeeding the late Dr. Walter Wyman. Dr. Blue has been connected with the Marine Hospital Service for years, and is credited with driving the plague out of San Francisco.

Dr. Blue was in charge of Sanitation at the Jamestown Exposition in 1907.

AROUND THE HOTELS

Some legislation affecting hotels, perhaps in the matter of taxation, may be asked at the coming meeting of the Virginia and North Carolina Hotel Association, which will be held at Charlotte on January 9, 10 and 11. Several Richmond hotel men will be present. The two States joined forces last year at the Richmond meeting, and have formed a joint association.

J. B. C. Spencer, of Williamsburg, is president of the association, secretary, and Felix Keegan, of this city, chairman of the executive committee.

G. W. Ingham, Insurance Commissioner for the District of Columbia, spent yesterday in the city. He is here to confer with Commissioner Burton, of the Virginia Department. Ingham said that he has not as yet consented to the renewal of the license of the True Reformers in the District.

DeVal Radford. One of the new members of the House of Delegates from Bedford county, has arrived in the city for the legislative session.

Vice-presidents at the Hotel. Lexington—A. W. Schwarz, Norfolk; H. M. Crowder, Covington; P. H. Rul-
